

TEEN TALENT

Only Teardrops (Emmelie de Forest)

The sky is red tonight
We're on the edge tonight
No shooting star to guide us

Eye for an eye, why tear each other apart?
Please tell me why, why do we make it so hard?
Look at us now, we only got ourselves to blame
It's such a shame

Tell me

How many times can we win and lose?
How many times can we break the rules between us?
Only teardrops

How many times do we have to fight?
How many times till we get it right
between us?
Only teardrops

What's gone between us has come between us
Only teardrops
What's gone between us has come
between us

How many times can we win and lose?
How many times can we break the
rules between us?
Only teardrops

How many times do we have to fight?
How many times till we get it right
between us?
Only Teardrops

Only teardrops, ooohhh
Only teardrops
Only Teardrops

How many times can we win and
lose?
How many times can we break the
rules between us?
Only teardrops

How many times do we have to fight?
How many times till we get it right
between us?
Only teardrops
